

Daycamp Evaluation Form

Please read thoroughly and initial:

Safety is our primary goal, therefore; Daycamp Is Not For Every Dog. Please reflect upon the following when considering your dog for a daycamp evaluation. Daycamp is not a place for aggressive dogs to learn how to be social. To be accepted into our Daycamp program, all dogs must successfully pass a physical and behavioral assessment before being approved. Dog(s) must be tolerant to all staff for handling and interaction. While your dog might be playful, they also must be deemed for “safe play” while in camp. Daycamp may not be the best fit for a pet that suffers from anxiety, and depending on severity is not recommended for pets with physical ailments. Any signs of unwarranted aggression towards staff or Daycamp attendees will not be accepted. Please note that our day camp experiences capacities of 25+ dogs a day. Owners must accurately detail any prior experience at other Daycamp facilities or history involving their pet below on the form. The Barkley reserves the right to refuse dogs that have displayed aggression, anxiety, and/or problematic behavior such as lack of recall and mounting. Your dog will attend either large or small camp depending on size and demeanor.
