MEDICAL ILLNESS & MEDICATION POLICY

One of the advantages of boarding your pet(s) at a Veterinary Hospital is that medical attention is readily available for our guests. If you're pet needs medical attention we will call the emergency number that was given to us on admission. If we are unable to contact you, your pet will be treated as a veterinarian deems necessary, at normal hospital fees. Clients are responsible for fees incurred.

If your pet is currently on medication, please inform the receptionist. Charges for administering medications are based on the frequency of dosages and the means of administration.

PERSONAL BELONGINGS

For our guests, we provide all bedding, bowls and dietary needs unless otherwise specified. Therefore, we strongly discourage any personal belongings at the Resort. In the event that you would like to bring your own belongings, please note that VCA Becker will not be held responsible for any damaged or lost items. Please limit items to 3. All items will be labeled with pet's name in non-toxic permanent marker to help with return. If you have questions about this, please discuss with the admitting technician. *Leashes and collars may not be left at any time.

REQUIRED SEPARATION OF MULTIPLE PETS

In the event of injuries inflicted as a result of multiple pets boarding together in a single run, VCA Becker will not be held liable. The pets will be separated and any fees associated with medical treatments or additional boarding costs will be provided at the owner's expense. There will be an additional charge for boarding pets fed separately. Please tell front desk staff of any feeding arrangements needed.

ABANDONMENT

Please notify us if there is any change of plans in your pet's scheduled release date. If you do not notify us of a change in your pet's departure date (either we do not hear from you or are unable to contact you or your authorized agent for a period of 14 days after your pet's scheduled release date, the Hospital will consider your pet abandoned according to the animal abandonment laws in your state. Please be advised that the pet owner will be responsible for the fees accrued and any other fees or legal services incurred by the Hospital as a result of the abandonment.
