

Disaster Plan for Pets

Brought to you by Nationwide®

Whether it's a disaster or an emergency, planning ahead will save valuable time—and keep pets safe

Prepare a “grab & go” bag

Keep a bag filled with at least a five-day supply of these essential pet supplies in a readily-accessible area.

Make pet insurance part of your disaster plan.

Having coverage in place when you need it means you'll have one less thing to worry about.

Pet kennels and bedding

- Familiar bedding can reduce pets' stress.
- A pet carrier or a kennel shields pets from noise, curious onlookers and other wandering pets and prevents pets from fleeing.

Find a pet-friendly hotel

Keep a list of at least three pet-friendly hotels outside your immediate area in your pet's go-bag.

Reach out to friends

Who would be willing to shelter your pet in an emergency? Make arrangements ahead of time.

Locate a shelter that accepts pets

Not all evacuation shelters accept pets. Research shelters now, keep info in your pet's go-bag.

Make pet health coverage part of your disaster plan. Get back 90% on veterinary expenses for accidents, injuries and more.*
