Hosts:

Dr. Susan Holt, PGRS-C
Pet-Loss Grief Recovery Specialist

Dr. Holt obtained a B.S. in Molecular, Cellular and Developmental Biology from the University of CA, Santa Cruz, followed by a Doctor of Veterinary Medicine degree from the University of Illinois. After moving back to MA, Dr. Holt decided to offer at home euthanasia services as her way of giving back to the community, as she knows all too well how difficult this time can be. To further help pet owners, Dr. Holt also became certified in Pet-Loss Grief Recovery by the American Institute of Health Care Professionals.

Kelly Drescher Johnson, CTP
Grief Care Counselor & Certified Trauma Professional

Kelly Drescher Johnson obtained a B.A. in Music Education from Carroll University. She later attended Boston University and graduated with a Masters of Divinity in Practical Theology. She is a certified Pet Chaplain through the Association for Veterinary Pastoral Education and a Certified Trauma Professional through Evergreen Certifications.
